1. Are you currently a Wilmington VA Medical Center volunteer?

Yes No

If you answered no to the above question: This volunteer opportunity requires becoming a volunteer with the Wilmington VA Medical Center. Individuals will need 1) to take a TB test and have negative results, 2) favorable adjudication on a background check, 3) to attend at a Volunteer Orientation session, and 4) an in-person interview with a representative of the department with which they will be working. Please indicate that you are willing to adhere to the four listed requirements of the Wilmington VA Medical Center.

Yes No

2. Have you worked with Microsoft Word and have the ability to operate simple recording devices?

Yes No

3. This volunteer opportunity requires interviewing veterans and writing their stories. It requires specific personality skills as well as the ability to write well. Tell us why you should be considered (please type your response).

4. Watch this video of an interview being conducted and write a 1-2-page (650-1300 word) story from the Veteran's perspective. Submit your story typed. The video can be found on Delaware Humanities' website: <https://dehumanities.org/program/mylifemystory/>

Submit this form and your responses to questions 3 and 4 to info@dehumanities.org or mail to Delaware Humanities, 100 W 10th St, Suite 509, Wilmington, DE 19801.

Delaware Humanities will review your application and respond within 5-7 business days. If accepted as a volunteer and not currently a Wilmington VA Medical Center volunteer, you will then need to begin the process to be onboarded through the VA Voluntary Service Office.
