

FY22 ACTION/INNOVATION Grant Process

Delaware Humanities Forum

Question Group

Before completing the LOI please read the Grant Guidelines. DE Humanities staff will review the LOI to determine if your proposed project meets the basic requirements for eligibility. If your organization's mission and project fit within the criteria detailed below, you will be invited to submit an application. Please note that an invitation to submit an application does not guarantee funding.

If you have any questions, please contact us at info@dehumanities.org.

Eligibility Determination

View the detailed eligibility criteria here.

- The organization applying for funding must be based in Delaware.
- Your organization must be either a nonprofit organization in good standing with state and federal tax entities or a government entity, such as a state, county, or city department or agency.
- The project for which you are applying for funding must be targeted towards communities in Delaware
- The project for which you are applying for funding must fit into one of our four Core Themes which include: Stories/Histories, Culture/Community, Media/Democracy, and Environment/Health
- Academic institutions or governmental agencies may apply for more than one grant if those grants come from different departments or units. Please include the department or unit when applying.
- The funding request must support the implementation of a public humanities project.

Mission and Audience*

What is your organization's mission, vision, and primary programmatic work? This is a place to tell us about your organization's purpose, the kinds of programs that you run, and the community of people who benefit from your work. If your organization is led by and/or serves historically marginalized groups, please provide further detail about how your work supports them. If you serve a specific geographic area, please tell us about that as well. Numbers and narrative information is helpful.
